Lender Faculty Fellowship 2027-2029

Each year, a Lender Faculty Fellow is selected to lead a two-year project in collaboration with five Lender Student Fellows. The Lender Fellows team will work with individuals and institutions from across campus, the community and nation to develop and propose innovative ways of engaging contemporary social issues and to promote the pursuit of social justice. Faculty fellows will;

- Propose a clear issue/problem that will sustain the two-year research/engagement project
- Be committed to working closely and openly with the student members of the team

Prepare for our next application cycle!

Complete the Faculty Fellowship Application on our website

Letter of support from the faculty member's chair/director.

Ensure the letter includes:

- Formal signature
- Department letterhead
- Relevance of this project to the department's curriculum
- Assessment of the faculty member's ability to lead a diverse, interdisciplinary team
- Letters should be emailed separately via PDF attachment to lendercenter@syr.edu

Applicants are encouraged to submit supplemental materials showcasing previous collaborations between students, faculty, and community partners

- Letters of support from previous/ongoing community partners
- Letters of support from students engaged in research/engagement projects
- Examples of published research, performances, exhibitions, or other relevant scholarship related to the proposed project
- Supplemental materials can be uploaded to the application or emailed separately via PDF attachment to lendercenter@syr.edu
